OTIS CIVILIAN ADVISORY COUNCIL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION 2026 -2027

To be eligible for the scholarship, one must be a senior at or graduated from high school and have applied to or be presently enrolled in an institute for higher learning. All applicants must be dependents of active-duty military stationed at JBCC/WHCG or Sector SENE which includes US Air Force, Air National Guard, US Army, Army National Guard, US Coast Guard or US Space Force.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS: Please complete and return this application no later than April 1, 2027 to Arlene Tierney at atierney67@gmail.com.

If you are applying as a high school senior, please attach a letter of recommendation from a teacher or guidance counselor and an official copy of your latest high school transcript. Scholarships are awarded upon the successful completion of the first semester of your freshman year. In addition, the college registrar must forward an official transcript of your first semester grades to the committee. A check will be mailed directly to you once these conditions are satisfied.

If you are presently attending a college or university, please attach an official copy of your most recent transcript with your application.
